

From: Chris and Lew [bailey3@twcny.rr.com]
Sent: Wednesday, November 28, 2007 10:44 PM
Subject: Spam: Jane M. Durland

Dear Glen Eldridge Community,
As some of you may already have heard, it is with great sadness that we write to tell you that Jane Durland passed away early this month, on November 2nd. She passed away at her home surrounded by loved ones. Amy and Jack Durland have decided not to tell their mother, Mary, who resides at the Schuyler Hospital nursing home, as they are unsure of her ability to absorb and cope with such terrible news. For this reason they ask that you not send condolences directly to Mary Durland.

Following is information from Amy Durland regarding the memorial service for Jane:

Sunday, December 9, 2007
Memorial Service: 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
Reception: 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.
Wellesley College Club, Wellesley, MA

Those who knew and loved Jane are invited.
If very major snowstorm, we will reschedule.

Here is the link to and the text of Jane's obituary on the funeral home website:

<http://www.funeralquestions.com/obits/campbell/memorial.asp?listing_id=93680>

--Chris and Lew

Jane M. Durland

Born: October 31, 1951
Died: November 02, 2007
Services: A Memorial Service will be announced at a later date.
Visitation: None

TOPSFIELD, MA Jane M. Durland, age 56 years, died on Friday evening, November 2, 2007 at her home in Topsfield. She was the loving wife of the late Steven M. Brody. Born in Watkins Glen, NY, daughter of Mary O. Durland of Watkins Glen, NY and the late Franklin B. Durland. She was a graduate of Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, NY.

She had a thirty-three year career with the Commonwealth, beginning as a social worker in South Boston and most recently as Deputy Director of Human Resources at the Executive Office of Health and Human Services.

A lover of nature and the Red Sox, who was at Fenway to see Fisk's home run in 1975, Jane's warmth and wit will be remembered by relatives and a circle of friends ranging back to her childhood. A woman of intelligence and style, she had the ability to engage with everyone she met. She enjoyed life's adventures, as well as its simple pleasures, including New York Times crossword puzzles (in ink), old movies, and Broadway songs. She leaves behind warm memories, great stories, and good laughs.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by a sister, Amy Durland and her husband Robert Mains of Saratoga Springs, NY; a brother, John F. Durland and his wife Debbie of Ithaca, NY; niece and nephews, Nick, Alana and Cory Durland, Alan and Paul Mains; stepdaughter, Elizabeth Brody of New York City and stepson, Benjamin Brody, who is on his second tour in Iraq. She was also sister of the late Elizabeth Durland.

A Memorial Service will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her name to the Trustees of Reservations, 572 Essex Street, Beverly, MA 01915-1530 or to the Brain Tumor Society, 124 Watertown St., Suite 3H, Watertown, MA 02472 or to the charity of one's choice. Arrangements by the Campbell & Lee, Moody, Russell Funeral Home, 525 Cabot St., Beverly. Information and condolences at www.campbellfuneral.com

*Memorials: *In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her name to the Trustees of Reservations, 572 Essex Street, Beverly, MA 01915-1530 or to the Brain Tumor Society, 124 Watertown St., Suite 3H, Watertown, MA 02472 or to the charity of one's choice.